COVID-19- Coronavirus update for our clients, colleagues and communities

Rest assured it is business as usual for us at Walker Solicitors with the assistance of additional measures to ensure that we can continue to support our clients in the most efficient manner in light of current events.

Our number one priority is the safety and well-being of our clients, colleagues and communities.

As a precautionary measure, all face-to-face contact at our office will cease however please speak to us about making suitable alternative arrangements.

We are able to conduct meetings remotely via telephone, email or video call where possible, making use of technology to ensure that we are continuing to support you.

Walker Solicitors wish you all the best health and advise you to follow the Government's published guidelines to minimise transmission.
